Spring

By Laura Sharon

Dark sky opens wide.
Rain pummels the earth.
A wet breeze blows in Open windows.

The smell of lilacs dances amidst
The waft of new mown grass.
Life gives birth again.
Splendid Spring.
